Are there many scams in photovoltaic panel leasing

Overview

One of the most prevalent solar scams involves misleading lease agreements or power purchase agreements (PPAs). Scams, schemes and straight-up fraud abound in the dark underbelly of an otherwise light-filled industry. These frauds often combine elements of traditional door-to-door sales tactics with more modern contracting schemes. There are no federal government giveaways for. Solar panel fraud has become a growing concern in the United States, leaving many homeowners stuck with hidden fees, inflated energy bills, and contracts they never fully understood. As more families consider solar energy improvements, dishonest companies exploit the fine print in solar panel. Did a salesperson knock on your door and promise free rooftop solar panels at no cost to you?

Or say you'll never have to pay another electricity bill because government programs, grants, or rebates cover your solar installation?

It's likely a scam. To avoid getting scammed, you need to know what to look out for and when to walk away.
