Huawei withdraws from solar inverter industry

Overview

Huawei's recent expulsion from SolarPower Europe amid a high-profile EU bribery investigation marks a significant turning point for the renewable energy sector, raising questions about transparency and international collaborations. SolarPower Europe has suspended efforts to exclude Huawei, launched in May amid a European Union bribery probe. The reversal came after a months-long saga marked by an anti-corruption investigation and mounting. According to research by trade body SolarPower Europe, Chinese firms control approximately 65 percent of the total installed power in the solar sector. | Joan Cros/NurPhoto via Getty Images BRUSSELS — First it was telecom snooping.
