National planning for wind and photovoltaic power generation

Overview

As a result of new solar projects coming on line this year, we forecast that U. solar power generation will grow 75% from 163 billion kilowatthours (kWh) in 2023 to 286 billion kWh in 2025. We expect that wind power generation will grow 11% from 430 billion kWh in 2023 to 476. Based on the 2022 North American Electric Reliability Corporation (NERC) Long-Term Reliability Assessment,<sup>3</sup> the combination of growth in peak demand and retirements suggests a need for more than 100 gigawatts (GW) of new capacity by 2032. However, headwinds are also getting stronger. Several challenges persist that are slowing deployment, including lack of sufficient grid capacity and. In the wake of this directive, the federal government has taken actions to encourage the deployment of renewable energy and other low-carbon energy sources. Actions to expand generation and consumption of solar and wind energy are seen in three distinct arenas: (1) incentivizing renewable energy. Each presentation focuses on global and U. supply and demand, module and system price, investment trends and business models, and updates on U.
